Pre-College String Orchestra

With an average age of just over 12, the Juilliard Pre-College String Orchestra rehearses weekly and presents two concerts each season: a full symphony orchestra program in the fall semester and a strings-only program in the spring. As the youngest ensemble in the division, the string orchestra is part of an orchestral training program that strives to prepare its members for the rigorous demands and expectations of conservatory and college orchestras. The Pre-College orchestras draw upon the significant resource of the College Division's students by employing them as mentors to work alongside the Pre-College students. The repertoire is guided by a progressive curriculum beginning with the string orchestra and continuing through the symphony and orchestra, ensuring that all students have exposure to works from varied composers, musical styles, and genres. String orchestra concerts feature a concerto, providing an important opportunity to a student soloist, many of whom go on to important careers, including Han-Na Chang, Pamela Frank, Gil Shaham, Joseph Lin, Yo-Yo Ma, Jon Manasse, Roberto Minczuk, Conrad Tao, and Joyce Yang. This season, the Pre-College String Orchestra is led by Nico Olarte-Hayes.

About Nico Olarte-Hayes

Recipient of the 2016-18 Leonore Annenberg Arts Fellowship, Nicolas Olarte-Hayes (Pre-College '07, cello) has given solo recitals at Lincoln Center and the Neue Galerie in New York City, in Memphis' Artists Ascending series and New York's Young Musicians Forum, and in the Netherlands and Japan. He has played on Live From Lincoln Center (PBS) and The Kennedy Center Honors (CBS) in tribute to violinist Itzhak Perlman, a longtime mentor, and has collaborated frequently with Perlman, most notably at the grand opening of the Kennedy Center's Family Theater. Other collaborations include performances with mezzo-soprano Denyce Graves in Carnegie Hall's Zankel Hall, pianist Christopher O'Riley in Boston's Jordan Hall, and violinist Ryu Goto in sold-out tours of Japan and the U.S., broadcast on PBS, NPR, and Fuji TV, respectively. Equally accomplished as a conductor, Olarte-Hayes won the Vincent C. LaGuardia Conducting Competition and was music director of New York's IconoClassic Opera and Harvard's Dunster House Opera, leading fully staged productions of Werther and Albert Herring. He has led the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, Baltimore Chamber Orchestra, Sofia Festival Orchestra, Bohuslav Martinů Philharmonic, Savaria Symphony Orchestra, Camerata Antonio Soler, and Salzburg Chamber Soloists in numerous international workshops, including the Tanglewood Festival Conducting Seminar. He also led the New World Symphony in a workshop with music director Michael Tilson Thomas and has served as cover conductor for the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra. Born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, Olarte-Hayes began his musical studies with his mother at age 3. He completed Juilliard Pre-College studies under cellists David Soyer and Harvey Shapiro and studied for eight years at the Perlman Music Program under Ronald Leonard. He graduated with honors from the Harvard/NEC joint program, simultaneously earning an AB in Physics from Harvard, where he studied music with Robert Levin, and his MM from the New England Conservatory, where he studied with Laurence Lesser.

About Juilliard's Preparatory Division

The cornerstones of Juilliard's Preparatory Division are two Saturday music programs, Juilliard Pre-College and the Music Advancement Program. The Preparatory Division is led by Dean Weston Sprott.

Juilliard Pre-College

One of the foremost music preparatory programs in the world, Juilliard Pre-College, offers a comprehensive conservatory-style music program for students ages 8 to 18 who exhibit the talent, potential, and ambition to pursue music study at the college level. The selective program includes instruction in a chosen major, academic study of music, and solo and ensemble performances. Recognizing the importance of early development and discipline in the music field, the program provides a caring, collaborative, and challenging atmosphere where artistic gifts and technical skills can flourish. Approximately 300 students are enrolled in Pre-College.

Music Advancement Program

Celebrating its 30th anniversary, MAP is a Saturday program for intermediate and advanced music students from New York City's five boroughs and the tristate area who demonstrate a commitment to artistic excellence. The program actively seeks students from diverse backgrounds underrepresented in the classical music field and is committed to enrolling the most talented and deserving students regardless of their financial background. Through a rigorous curriculum, performance opportunities, and guidance from an accomplished faculty, MAP students gain the necessary skills to pursue advanced music studies while developing their talents as artists, leaders, and global citizens. Approximately 70 students are enrolled in MAP, which is led by Artistic Director Anthony McGill. MAP is generously supported through an endowed gift in memory of Carl K. Heyman.
