WELCOME!

Thank you for being with us tonight for our celebration of and for the future. Your participation makes that future bright and makes it possible for so many who, without your support, could not take advantage of the unparalleled education that is Juilliard. There is no other school with the educational possibilities of the highest level of music, dance, and drama together under one roof, and with each class Juilliard extends its legacy of excellence and fostering the next movements, the next masterpieces, the next change-makers in the performing arts. What happens at Juilliard enormously influences what happens on all of Lincoln Center's stages and screens—and onward around the globe. This is the impact of Juilliard on the arts writ large, but it starts with the individual students you will cheer for tonight.

The extraordinary opportunity Juilliard offers creates with it an obligation to make attending possible for all whose talent makes them deserving. While Juilliard provides a financial aid package to more than 90 percent of its students, the challenges are such that we must reach toward more assistance for these gifted young artists. I thank you for helping to further this goal and for all of your support, which makes Juilliard a place where all can thrive. In our alumni, we see how a Juilliard education can take hold in the world. And, on our stage this evening, you will see the light of what is to come.

With gratitude to our co-chairs, our supporters, and all who are gathered to celebrate our students and the arts tonight,

COMMITMENT TO SCHOLARSHIP

For more than a century, Juilliard has been the launchpad of performers, creators, educators, and leaders who have shaped the arts. Juilliard is committed to ensuring that these extraordinary young artists are able to focus their full attention on honing their craft and nurturing their authentic artistic voices. Tonight's benefit supports much-needed scholarships for the young artists who come to fulfill their talent and dreams as the next generation ready to make its mark on the world.

Because 93 percent of our students need financial aid to make their goal of pursuing a Juilliard education possible, 100 percent of this benefit's net proceeds will support the Juilliard Scholarship Fund. Donating to the Celebration also includes the opportunity to name a scholarship either in your name or that of someone you choose to honor.

We are so grateful for the generosity that allows our students in music, dance, and drama to pursue their studies here, free of undue financial burden. If you would like to further support scholarships at Juilliard, please use the QR code below to donate to the Juilliard Celebration:

Jerome L. Greene Scholarship Challenge

The Jerome L. Greene Foundation has generously committed up to $5 million in matching funds to support named, endowed scholarships at Juilliard, helping to provide $10 million in new scholarship funding. The foundation will match 1:1 any gift of $100,000 to create a new named endowed scholarship fund or add to an existing named scholarship fund. Multiyear pledges are welcome (up to 5 years).

For more information, please contact Irene Elias at ielias@juilliard.edu or (212) 799-5000, ext. 309.
