William Shakespeare

Romeo and Juliet

Richard II

Third-Year Shakespeare Repertory
2017–18 Season
Welcome to the Juilliard Drama Division’s 50th anniversary season.

In the theater, we make things together we could never make by ourselves. All through this 50th anniversary year we will all come together—actors, writers, directors, teachers, staff, alumni, patrons, families, friends—in celebration, in remembrance, and in gratitude. We will look back and look ahead as we rededicate ourselves and begin to chart a course for the next 50 years.

Our art is about the enactment of change. It is easier to enact change than live it. That is true for individuals and for institutions. The Drama Division is changing. It should. It must. But as we change we have to have the discernment to see and the tenacity to hold fast to the best principles that have made us who we are. We in the Drama Division hold fast to our dedication to craft and our dedication to telling the story of what it’s like to be a human being. We believe you can’t do the latter without the former.

Fifty years is not very long if we measure in years. But measured in accumulated experience—the journeys, the discoveries, the revelations, the heartbeat, the faith, the joy—these 50 years are almost infinite in the amount of lived life. Yet, so much lies ahead. There are stories not yet told, voices not yet heard on our stages. That is the work of the next 50 years and that work starts now.

Some of us will be here for the 100th anniversary. Some of us will not. But we will all be making something together we could not make by ourselves. By teaching, learning, and performing, we are all part of this great legacy of craft and humanity.

Welcome to our 50th year. Let us celebrate together.

A Tianjin Primer

A great deal has happened in Tianjin since September 28, 2015, when Juilliard president Joseph W. Polisi announced plans for The Tianjin Juilliard School. Last spring, Alexander Brose was selected to serve as the first executive director and C.E.O. and Wei He as the artistic director and dean. From the ceremonial ground breaking over the summer to the start of construction earlier this year, the school is gearing up to welcome its first class in 2019.

Where is The Tianjin Juilliard School?

- Tianjin is the third largest city in China, and the school will be adjacent to a high-speed rail station with one-hour service to downtown Beijing. The school is located in a beautiful, riverside park along the Hai River in the New Binhai Area, Tianjin.
- Designed by the internationally renowned firm, Diller Scofidio + Renfro, The Tianjin Juilliard School building will have state-of-the-art teaching and performance spaces, and a multi-faceted learning environment.
- The Tianjin Juilliard School builds on the city’s rich artistic heritage by establishing a new crossroad for Juilliard’s network of artists, teachers, friends, and students.
- The ribbon-like Hai River—the largest water body in Northern China—weaves through Tianjin. It is spanned by 21 bridges and offers easy access to the Haihe Cultural Square and Haihe River Bund Park, among other attractions.
Learn and Play at The Tianjin Juilliard School

• The inaugural group of 100 students in the U.S.-accredited master of music program will be immersed in one of three core areas: orchestral studies, chamber music, or collaborative piano.

• The audition-based Tianjin Juilliard School Pre-College program will admit up to 200 students, ages 8 to 18.

• As many as 150 performances every year will be presented in the 700-seat concert hall, 299-seat recital hall, or 250-seat black box theater.

• Juilliard Imagination, an innovative learning environment, will feature interactive exhibitions curated for adults and children alike.

Become Part of the Culture

• Tianjin’s artistic tapestry includes the development of Peking Opera and China’s first conservatory offering study in Western music.

• When in Tianjin, one can take a stroll through Five Great Avenues, a fascinating area with historic buildings featuring a wealth of diverse architectural styles from across Europe.
