Juilliard Orientation 2017

Parent Connections #2: July 10 – August 6, 2017

Happy July! By now, you and your student should have received welcome letters from Dr. Jennifer Awe, Dean of Student Affairs. Students have been emailed their second Orientation Checklist on July 10. As we get a little closer to New Student Orientation, here is a reminder of some important deadlines and some new information.

Juilliard Email

By this time, all new students, including former Pre-College students, should have activated their Juilliard email account. We are no longer sending emails to students' alternate email addresses, so it is critical that students activate and regularly check their Juilliard email. If your student is not able to access their Juilliard email, please have their email the Information Technology Department at helpdesk@juilliard.edu.

Juilliard Online New Student Orientation (JONSO)

All new students will receive a notice to their Juilliard email from our online platform called Canvas by July 17. JONSO is an online learning program created to supplement New Student Orientation. Students must complete JONSO by Monday, August 28 at 12:00 pm EST in order to register for classes this fall.

Parents and Family Orientation and Juilliard Online New Family Orientation (JONFO)

In addition to New Student Orientation, Juilliard hosts a Parents and Family Orientation. The schedule is posted on the Parents and Family Orientation web page. To help us prepare for Parents and Family Orientation, we request that parents and families please RSVP for Parents and Family Orientation by August 14. Questions regarding Parents and Family Orientation may be directed to Sabrina Tanbara, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, at stanbara@juilliard.edu.

Parents and guardians will have the option of participating in Juilliard Online New Family Orientation (JONFO). This optional online program is intended to provide information so that families can share in their student's experience, learn about the resources available to their student, and supplement the Parents and Family Orientation. A link to JONFO will be posted on the Parents and Family Orientation page later this month.
