Title: Solicitation and Distribution Policy

Policy Owner: Office of Public Affairs

Contact Information: Room 214A Main Building
(212) 799-5000, ext. 207
publicaffairs@juilliard.edu

Applies to: All Members of the Juilliard Community (includes all faculty; staff; and students, including College, Pre-College, MAP, and Evening Division); parents; and alumni

Effective Date: March 1, 2018

In the interest of maintaining a productive and non-coercive educational and work environment, The Juilliard School prohibits unauthorized solicitation for charity or services, distribution of commercial literature, distribution for sale of merchandise, or engaging in any other venture involving personal financial gain on School property and/or through utilizing School resources. This includes solicitation, sales and/or distribution on all School-owned and rented buildings and grounds, including without limitation the Irene Diamond Building, the Meredith Willson Residence Hall, The Café, the Signature Theater and all other locations affiliated with the School.

The unauthorized creation and/or sale of merchandise using the Juilliard name is strictly prohibited under all circumstances. Departments or student groups who wish to create custom merchandise should contact Tina Matin in The Juilliard Store (ext. 7232, tmatin@juilliard.edu).

For purposes of this policy, solicitation or soliciting includes, but is not limited to:

- Canvassing, soliciting or seeking to obtain membership in or support for any organization requesting contributions.
- Posting or distributing handbills, pamphlets, petitions, and advertising materials.
- Peddling or otherwise selling, purchasing or offering goods and services for sale or purchase.
- Engaging in any other conduct relating to any outside business interests, or for personal profit or economic benefit, on Juilliard property or using Juilliard resources (including without limitation using classrooms, studios or performance areas; bulletin boards; computers; mail, email and telecommunication systems; photocopiers; telephone lists; and databases).

Approval of Solicitation

Any group or individual wishing to distribute literature or printed materials of any kind; to sell or solicit others to purchase memberships, merchandise or services; or to recruit on campus must be authorized to do so.

- Registered student clubs or student organizations must receive approval from the Office of Student Affairs.
- Students must receive approval from the Office of Residence Life for posting in the residence hall.
- Faculty or staff members must receive approval from the Office of Human Resources, Public Affairs, and Legal.

Non-Juilliard affiliated solicitors will be asked to leave the campus by Juilliard's Public Safety Department.

Prohibited Activity

Approved solicitation may not:

- Interfere with other Juilliard polices.
- Interfere or compete with the operations of Juilliard or its contractual relations with others.
- Infringe upon the School's trademarks or logos or other intellectual property rights.
- Interfere with instruction, the orderly operation of the School and the maintenance of its grounds.
- Obstruct the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic.
- Use sound amplification equipment or in any way interfere with the rights of other individuals on School property.
- Contain false, misleading, or illegal claims.
- Relate to the promotion or consumption of alcoholic beverages, illicit drugs, or smoking related products.
- Make any representation, implied or direct, that suggests Juilliard's endorsement or guarantee of any products or services.
