Optional Practical Training (OPT) Request Form
F-1 Students Only

What is OPT?
- Temporary work authorization for F-1 students after the completion of their degree program.
- Available to F-1 students who have been lawfully enrolled full-time for one academic year at the college level and who will work in their field of study.
- F-1 students can qualify for up to 12 months of OPT per completion of a higher degree level.

When should a student request OPT?
- It can take USCIS on average 4-6 months to approve the OPT!! Students should apply as early as possible.
- Applications may be submitted to USCIS up to 90 days prior to the I-20 program end date and no later than 60 days after the I-20 program end date.

How does a student request OPT?
- Completes the online OPT Workshop and scores a 70% or higher on the quiz. Both can be found on Canvas at https://courses.juilliard.edu/courses/1441879/wiki
- Makes a 30 minute appointment with Alli or Vanessa using Calendly, OIA’s online appointment system.
  - Vanessa: https://calendly.com/valenzuela1 (Last names starting with A-K)
  - Alli: https://calendly.com/adscheetz (Last names starting with L-Z)
- You must send a draft version (scanned) of your entire application to Vanessa or Alli at least 48 hours before your 30-minute appointment. We will let you know what edits need to be made to your application.
- During your 30-minute appointment, OIA issues a new I-20 containing the OPT recommendation and application is sent to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for approval.
- Begins employment once EAD (OPT card) has been received by the student and effective date has passed.

Students may NOT begin work until they have received their EAD card and may only work between the start and end date printed on the EAD.

OIA attempts to provide the most recent, useful information to our students. However, we make no claims, promises or guarantees about the accuracy, completeness or adequacy of the information contained in or linked to handouts or Canvas courses. Information provided by OIA does not constitute and should not be considered legal advice or a legal opinion, and it may not necessarily reflect the most current legal developments. Students should seek the advice of counsel or a tax professional for additional guidance. OIA reminds students that failure to comply with F-1 regulations is a violation of your status, which may result in serious consequences including the termination of your SEVIS record, your inability to re-enter the US, and the accrual of unlawful presence which could lead to your removal from the US. Direct all questions regarding your F-1 status to OIA, Room 245, oia@juilliard.edu

By signing below, I, _________________________, agree to the following terms:
- Give OIA permission to open mail addressed to me from USCIS.
- Will notify OIA immediately if I do not finish my degree as planned.
- Will comply with the reporting requirements (listed in the Canvas course) including, but not limited to, updating OIA with any change to employers, U.S. home address, or visa status.
- Will work cumulatively at least 20 hours per week (paid or unpaid) in my field of study to prevent the accrual of unemployment days.
- Will comply with the 60 day grace period requirement
- Understand that accruing 90 days of unemployment (or failure to report employment) is a violation of my F-1 status and may result in the termination of my F-1 status.
- Understand that if I engage in CPT after I have submitted my OPT application, there could be a risk of denial, because the new I-20 must be mailed to USCIS
- Understand that I CANNOT begin working until I have received my OPT/EAD card, and I will only work between the start and end date printed on the EAD card.
- Understand that working (paid or unpaid) ON-CAMPUS or OFF-CAMPUS after my graduation date requires an approved OPT, and that working without the EAD card is a violation of my F-1 status and can result in the termination of my F-1 status and OPT.
